

Results of the public tender offer by Total on Saft Groupe

Paris, 5 August 2016 - The Autorité des marchés financiers (the "AMF") published today the results of the public tender offer by Total on Saft Groupe. Total holds 97.12 percent of the capital and voting rights.

According to the General Regulation of the AMF, Saft stock will be delisted from Euronext on August 12, 2016, after the closing of the markets.

Ghislain Lescuyer, CEO of Saft Groupe, reiterated Saft's confidence in the deal « At Saft, we are very happy that the public tender offer has been an unqualified success. Joining the Total group offers us the opportunity to benefit from the advantages of being part of a global energy company and to accelerate the implementation of Power 2020, our strategic plan. I'm confident our employees, customers and partners will all feel the positive impacts of Saft becoming part of Total. »
